EQUALITY

A collaborative Zine
by young co-leaders of the Resilience Revolution

WORLD TO rights

EQUALITY

We're in this together, they say all the time
We know that's not true so hear my rhyme.
Inequalities in life, look around us rife.

The colour of your skin determines the standing you are in.

Your orientation looks down on by the nation

We're all out to earn a crust, but if you a woman you must, work harder than most and no, you can't boast

The homeless? Who cares? they don't need shelter that far.

We have foodbanks a plenty but what happens when they empty?

So hear our voice and stand up for equality

A world of fairness, understanding and love, our ultimate PRIORITY!!
